CITY AND VICINITY.

Don't forget to register tomorrow.

Time was 17 days granted in Ottawa county the past year.

Dave Blom and Martin Vander Bee shot 24 ducks in the marsh Saturday.

Art Kool, who lives south of the city, lost one of his best horses. It became paralyzed on the road, a short distance from home Saturday.

There will be a meeting of the board of directors of the S. O. & W. A. fair association, Saturday afternoon, April 1, at 1:30 o'clock, at the Holland City News office. Plans will be considered for the next fair.

Miss Jane Adams of Hull House, Chicago, will speak in Winants chapel on April 13. Miss Adams' work in the Chicago social settlement is too generally known to need comment and her coming to Holland is an event that will arouse general interest.

There were 54 deaths in Ottawa county during February, of which Holland reported 14 and Grand Haven 8. In this city five persons were over 65 years of age, and two under one year. Three deaths were caused by tuberculosis of the lungs, one by measles, one by pneumonia, one by influenza and one by violence.

The Argo will leave Holland on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights at 9 o'clock, or on arrival of the Interurban "steamboat" car leaving Grand Rapids at 8 p. m. This car will make no stops enroute. The nights for the boat leaving Chicago are Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at 8 p. m. There will be no Sunday boat either way.

Wm. D. VanLoo informs us that he has purchased a house at the county seat and expects to move his family there about April 1st. Mr. VanLoo has transferred his interests in the general store of J. VandenBosch & Co. of Zeeland to Mr. VandenBosch which again makes the latter sole owner of this large business. Mr. Van Loo already devotes all of his time to the work in the county treasurer's office.

Charles McElrath, a former resident of this city, and now living at Jenison, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Overweg on the charge of drunkenness. While in a drunken stupor McElrath wandered into the residence of L. Kamerling, East Seventh street, where the occupants of the house were away. He was later discovered by a member of the family who called the officer and had the drunken man arrested. He pleaded guilty in Justice De Vries' court and paid a fine of $4 and costs.

About 55 cans of brook trout minnows were put off at Montague Monday by the fish car which was attached to the regular passenger train. The fish fry came from the Paris hatchery and were consigned to Joseph Anoll, James Talfant, C. D. Burdick, Dick Phillips, Will Sweet, Francis Terwilliger, and Harvey Morse, who planted them in the various streams in this vicinity. Adam Born had his consignment of about four thousand put off at Rothbury from which place they were taken to Carleton Creek. The total number of trout planted this spring by local minnows will probably total 50,000.—Observer.

The Grand Haven, high school athletes are getting out for places on the track team and already several sure point winners have been discovered. The team promises to be particularly strong in the weight events as was the case last year. The hammer throw is an event with which the team expects to hold all opponents, and the shot put will be equally as sure a winner. The sprints and distance running is improving, but as yet no records have been smashed by Grand Haven runners and the team will have to establish a precedent if it takes the lead in sprints this year. The jumps and pole vaults, however, offer no very great assurance to the boys, but a winner may develop when the active out door training begins.

Hon. Theo. Wade ex-representative was elected president of Fennville.

The jurors in the liquor case against Henry Gildner of Grand Haven disagreed after deliberating for 11 hours.

Mr. Culbertson, the night operator of New Richmond has been ordered to go to Waverly and do night work there and will go as soon as a relief operator comes.

Two sportsmen of New Richmond shot forty-two muskrats Tuesday. The high water drove them from their houses and they were easily captured.

With the late appropriation of $75,000 for Saugatuck harbor the work will be expedited. It is reported that Burke, Smith & Nelson expect to have the cut made this season.

Every week for the next four weeks, beginning this week, our readers will hear from Cuba. Fillmore Bird, who is making a tour of the West Indies, will give a vivid description of his travels as he goes along.

John Fox, who was declared guilty by a jury Wednesday night, is now at liberty under bonds of $3000. C. Blom and David Blom of Holland went his bail. Fox is ordered to appear in circuit court on June 1, 1905.

Handsome, intelligent young lady, $20,000 in her own name, will marry immediately and will furnish husband with capital to start business; no objections to honorable poor man. Address Mrs. Belmont, 790 Hampden Bldg., Chicago.

While Mrs. Aris VanderHill was on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. John Nagelkerk in Grand Rapids, her child, who accompanied her, was suddenly stricken with pneumonia and they are now compelled to remain in Grand Rapids until the child recovers.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. S. Wiersma have agreed to support them. The aged couple have been supported by the city for sometime, but the children are well able to maintain them. An order has been issued by Judge Padgham compelling them to live up to the agreement.

David Blom of Zeeland was brought before Justice Hunton yesterday, charged with selling liquor without bond or license and he was bound over to circuit court. He was released upon bonds with C. Blom of Holland and E. C. Smith as sureties. The action was taken by Prosecuting Attorney Pagelsen.—Grand Haven Tribune.

Dr. L. E. Clark was elected president of Otsego village by the largest majority ever given a village president there. At the same election the voters approved of the proposition to bond the village for $4,500 with which to help the township build a hall for use of both. April 3, the township electors will vote on the question of raising $2,500 for the same purpose.

While there is nothing said officially about the future of the Allegan branch of the Michigan Central railway, persons familiar with traffic affairs have well-founded reason for believing that soon there will be some sort of change in the conduct of the business. One of the latest improvements to be made on this division is a steel bridge over the main line near Augusta. It is to be a single span 144 feet long. A few years ago there was at this place a trestle a half mile in length. All but about 400 feet of this distance was filled about ten years ago, and when the present improvements are completed there will be left only about 200 feet of bridge work. It required the services of a steam derrick two days to unload the material for the new bridge. It is thought that during the coming season the road will be practically rebuilt. It does not seem likely that the company would go to so great an expense only to continue the present service. What the change may be is a matter of much speculation. Last Thursday the Michigan Central shops at Marshall, which had been closed several weeks, were reopened and a large force of men put to work overhauling a number of small engines which could not be cared for at Jackson. There are at the present time fifty engines ready to go into the shops, and these alone will require a steady run of more than two years. It is said in Marshall that some of these engines will be used between that city and Grand Haven before this season closes.—Allegan Gazette.

Henry Vander Ploeg is having the interior of his book store painted and papered, making a noticeable improvement.

The clocks used by the beach patrols in the life saving service are but small affairs but their mechanism is very complex and each one is worth $75.

Herman Reynolds, the old soldier who disappeared from Spring Lake last fall, arrived in that village yesterday after spending the winter in New York state.

Every candidate on the Grand Haven republican ticket was nominated by acclamation. For Mayor, Herman F. Harbeck; for City Clerk, D. C. Wacks; for Treasurer, Claude T. Van der Veen.

Contract for the construction of a postoffice and customs house at Muskegon has been awarded by the secretary of the treasury to Charles W. Gindele & Co. of Chicago at $48,350, work to be completed by December 30 next.

The Pere Marquette railroad has severed its connections with Graham & Morton steamers at Holland and the steamboats will hereafter do business with the Holland Interurban. The Interurban is able to get freight into Grand Rapids about two hours ahead of other roads.

Owing to the rain and general bad weather it was deemed advisable to postpone the entertainment in Winants chapel, and G. Van Schelven will deliver his lecture for the benefit of the G. A. R. Post, some time next month, probably on April 12, the fiftieth anniversary of the assassination of President Lincoln.

The grocery store of John Schaberg of Saugatuck was broken open and entered by thieves for the seventh time within three years. It seems the thiefing is not done for gain as the intruders seldom take more than a few cigars and some candy, but they always open up boxes of sardines and besmear the showcases and strew the floor with their contents, as though they wished to show the merchant they had some personal spite against him. This is the ninth time the same store has been burglarized since Mr. Schaberg has been in business here.

Rolla Tuttle of Robinson was arrested in Robinson by Deputy Sheriffs Buxton and Salsbury, charged with stealing some window sashes from Mrs. Eliza J. Dennis of Olive. The crime was committed on September 8, 1903, but for some reason the warrant has never been served on Tuttle, whom it is alleged had committed the theft. Reports had reached the sheriff's office that Tuttle was a dangerous man and Officers Buxton and Salsbury were sent out to bring him in yesterday. They went prepared for trouble and met the man in the road. Much to their surprise, he made no effort to resist but stated that he was glad the arrest had been made as he would have a chance to prove his innocence. Tuttle has a wife and a very large family and he had recently sold his farm and intended moving to New-ago within a short time. He went to jail in default of bail.

UNITED STATES' ACTION PLEASES

DOMINICANS FAVORABLY IMPRESSED BY NEWS OF ACCEPTANCE OF PLAN.

BALTIMORE MAN GETS COLLECTOR'S POSITION

Not Yet Known Whether He Will Accept, However—Belgian Charge d'Affaires Says All Is Quiet in San Domingo.

San Domingo, Republic of Santo Domingo, March 29.—The news of the acceptance by the government at Washington of the proposition of the Dominican government that the government of the United States assume control of the finances of this republic, with the view of settling aside a portion of the revenues for the payment of its debts pending definite action on the part of the American senate, has had a most favorable effect here. The opinion is expressed that the action taken by the authorities at Washington will change the situation completely.

President Names Collector.
Washington, March 29.—The president has decided to recommend the selection of Ross Gould, of Baltimore, as one of the collectors of customs at San Domingo.

It has not yet been determined whether Ross Gould shall have general charge of the collections at all ports, or whether other persons will be appointed. The details are still under consideration.

May Not Accept.
Baltimore, Md., March 29.—J. Ross Gould, of this city, appointed as collector for San Domingo, is the cashier of the Baltimore & Ohio freight office at Locust Point. He said Wednesday that the announcement of his appointment is a great surprise to him, and that he will not make up his mind whether he will accept or not until he has received official notification, and has had time to consider.

Cablegram from Dawson.
The following cablegram from Minister Dawson, addressed to the secretary of state, was placed in President Roosevelt's hands:

"Under pressure of foreign creditors and domestic peril, the Dominican government offers to nominate a citizen of the United States as receiver for southern ports pending ratification of the protocol; four northern ports to be administered under the award. Forty-five per cent. of the total shall go to the Dominican government, 55 per cent. to be deposited in New York for distribution after ratification. Creditors are to agree to take no further steps in the meantime, and the receiver is to have full authority to suspend importers' preferential contracts. Italian, Spanish-German and American creditors, except the San Domingo Improvement company, accept unconditionally, and the Belgian and French representatives will recommend acceptance. Some modus vivendi is absolutely necessary. I am ready, if desired, to start for Washington on the 28th to explain details and modifications to the plan. The whole matter can be held open during my absence."

The president, after carefully reviewing the cablegram, instructed the acting secretary of state to direct Minister Dawson to express acquiescence in the proposal of San Domingo pending the action of the United States senate upon the treaty.

Quiet in Republic.
Havana, March 29.—Charles Renoz, the Belgian charge d'affaires at San Domingo, arrived here Wednesday. He said that all was apparently tranquil when he left San Domingo. He said his protest to President Morales regarding the Franco-Belgian claims was not a protest against anything which had been done or was being done by the United States, but was a reiteration of the Franco-Belgian claims for payment of the interest on the San Domingan government bonds, and an inquiry into when the payment would be forthcoming. Nothing was written or said about the collection of any portion of the revenues under the supervision of Belgians. The American minister, Mr. Dawson, consulted all the diplomatic representatives at San Domingo about the arrangements accepted Tuesday by President Roosevelt, but only as individuals, they in no sense committing their governments to the arrangement. They considered it a fair arrangement. The details as to where the 55 per cent. of the customs revenues was to be deposited and how drawn upon were not completed when Mr. Renoz left San Domingo, but he was confident that no action at Washington would prevent the payment of the Franco-Belgian claims for interest amounting to $2,000,000 the United States guardianship he pointed out, making the matter increasingly reassuring.

Prominent Man a Suicide.
New York, March 29.—William H. Hammond, one of the most prominent real estate men of Boston, committed suicide at the Hotel Astor here Wednesday by shooting. Despondency, due to ill-health, is supposed to have been the motive. He arrived here recently after a six-weeks' trip to Bermuda and Porto Rico, taken in hopes of improving his condition.

Congressman Critically Ill.
Warren, O., March 29.—Former Congressman Ezra B. Taylor, of the Nineteenth Ohio district, is critically ill and not expected to live. Mr. Taylor has reached the advanced age of 82 years. He succeeded James A. Garfield as congressman from that district, and served 12 years.

RUSSIA'S PRAYER.

"God of the Monarch, hear me—mine is a woeful case; Harken and heed my crying—Death is the foe I face! Death to the things I stand for, death to the thing called Me—Hear as I cry in terror up to the strength of Thee."

But the God who heard Was a God unstruck By the man-oppressor's cry; And the monarch's prayer That was uttered there Rang through a responseless sky.

"God of the shackles, hear me—God of the mine—Hear as I cringe before Thee, craving Thy help Divine. Mine is the desperation born of an utter need—Harken to me—I need Thee more than the backs that bleed!"

But the God above Is a God of love, And He pitied the people's plight; While the bad prayer fell To the nether hell, Where ruleth the Beast of Night.

"God of the bird untrammelled, God of the bloom and bee, God of the broken shackle, set all Thy children free!" This is the supplication sobbed through a rain of tears—Such are the supplications God in His mercy hears.—S. G. Gillilan, in Baltimore American.

A SHOPPING DAY

By R. NEISH

WE met at a hotel, and I thought her one of the most charming women I had ever seen.

Refined and almost hypersensitive, she struck me as being a woman of breeding and distinction. Yet on the few occasions when, as our acquaintance ripened, I visited her at her smart and elegantly appointed flat, I felt an instinctive aversion to the friends and acquaintances I met there.

Of her people she seldom spoke—her parents were dead, she told me, and her husband was abroad, but might be home again at any time.

She was always exquisitely dressed in the latest fashion and money seemed abundant with her. She was an adept shopper, quick at knowing what she wanted, and quicker still at seeing it, and I was very glad when she offered to pilot me through the difficult mazes of the winter sales.

I am not possessed of a large dress allowance, and my wardrobe for the coming season depends somewhat on my successful purchases in sale times. Mrs. Vereker was just the guide to help me through. She possessed such perfect taste and I felt quite safe in her hands.

We sat one evening arranging what we were to buy.

"It is better to go now when the first rush of the sales is over," said Mrs. Vereker. "I went the first three days myself, but the crowd was awful, and there are still plenty of things to be had."

"Did you pick up many things?" I asked.

She laid down the list she was making.

IT WAS SOON OVER.

ing and stared at me in dumb amazement. Then her face cleared.

"Yes—no, not so very much. Let me see; I bought this tea-coat and some hats and my new gray coat—that is all, I believe."

She continued the list, and at last I rose with a deep sigh of relief.

"It's so good of you. We'll go to first and then on to Bond street"—I glanced at the list—"and get the fur at—; they can always be relied on to really reduce things. I'll call for you at nine to-morrow, and we'll get Norman to lend me his motor."

"Yes, do," she said. "I love a motor—we can go to double the number of shops and spend the whole morning looking round till we find exactly what we want."

The next morning I called for Mrs. Vereker and found her waiting.

"Won't you find that coat too hot?" I asked, as we reached the first of our shops, and I slipped off my heavy motor-coat.

"No, I love it," she replied; "I am never too warm"—and drawing her voluminous skirts across a pavement luckily clean, she swept into the shop with her usual graceful, languid air.

I bought my coat and selected some lace, and went on to—, where I chose a few modest and one or two more expensive blouses, then we went on to the third and last shop. When I was choosing some ribbon in the multi-colored ribbon department, Mrs. Vereker said to me:

"I am just going to the handkerchiefs; I will join you in the fur department—you are going there?"

"Yes, I shan't be long."

"Nor I," she answered; "I am very tired." I had finished my purchases when she came back.

"Are you ready? I am feeling so faint. Do you mind hurrying?"

"I'm just ready," I said, "this very moment," and I put my hand in my muff to get my purse. There was no purse there, and I gave a cry of dismay. "Mrs. Vereker!—my purse!—it's gone!—and I had £25 in it. I had it a moment ago—I must have put it down in the ribbon department."

"Let me pay," she began—but I interrupted her.

"Nonsense, it can't be really gone"—and I almost ran to the ribbon department.

I found the shopwalker and the assistant—but no one had seen it, and baskets of ribbon were hastily searched without result.

"It is very dangerous to lay your purse down in a crowd," said the shopwalker, who knew me well; "it's only a wonder, madam, you didn't lose your muff as well."

I went back disconsolate to the fur department.

"I am awfully sorry to have kept you," I began, trying not to show my vexation more than I could help. "Are you better?"

She nodded and rose with haste. "Yes, but let's go if you don't mind. You can come back again and make inquiries. It doesn't matter about your purse. I have heaps of things and bits of fur I do not want."

"Nonsense," I said, "as though I should take yours."

"But, my dear child, I have so many, and surely a married woman can help a girl; besides I dare say the purse will turn up."

"Pardon me, madam."

A grave-looking man in a frock coat slid past me and laid his hand firmly on Mrs. Vereker's arm at the moment she was just stepping into the motor.

"What is it? This lady has left all information about her purse." She moved her arm haughtily.

The man's face grew graver.

"Perhaps you will kindly come back with me. It's you we want, if you please, madam."

There was a faint sneer on the word "madam," and Mrs. Vereker's face blanched.

"What do you mean?" she stammered. "How dare you? Cannot you see I am ill and wish to go home at once?"

I sprang to her side. "Never mind about the wretched purse," I said to the man. "This lady is not well, let her go home, and I will come back about the purse."

The man took no notice of me, but bending to Mrs. Vereker said something that made her step suddenly back and stand by his side. Then, to my utter amazement, shaking obviously from head to foot, and without even looking at me, she turned into the shop and I followed in bewildered dismay.

It was soon over. A few minutes in a private room and two female searchers had taken the heavy coat, far heavier now with lace and furs and flowers and blouses that were marvelously fastened in its ample folds. Under her cloak and attached to her waist by firm hooks hung several furs and many pieces of costly lace.

Mrs. Vereker, white as death, showed no sign of what she must be feeling, but looked in front of her with a dazed, set face, while I slipped outside to the waiting man. He was talking to another shopwalker, who, luckily, knew me well. "What is it?" I asked. "Is she a thief?"—a silly question he answered at once.

"One of the worst shoplifters in London," he said, laconically, "and yet we've never been able to catch her. Her husband is doing six months now for the very same thing. She knew you were here, madam, and brought you to shield her."

"But how did you find her out to-day?" I asked, aghast, "and what did you see her take?"

"Something that belongs to you," he said, as he gravely handed me my purse.—London Mail.

GO IN FOR EXPENSIVE MUSIC

Los Angeles Man Has Piano Made for Him at Cost of $10,000—Organ Cost $15,000.

Los Angeles, Cal.—A piano that, so far as known, is the costliest in the world has been placed in the music room of Edward L. Doheny's handsome home in Chester place. It is a concert grand, the case fashioned in Louis XV. style, and heavily enameled in 14-carat gold leaf.

More than two years elapsed between placing the order in New York and its delivery in Los Angeles. The instrument is so exquisitely tuned that its bell-like clearness and depth of melody would distinguish it instantly among a score of fine pianos. It cost $10,000.

The case is the work of Edward Dowdall, of New York, noted as a master of decorative art. The face of the lid is adorned with an allegorical scene—Apollo, with his harp, surrounded by goddesses and cupids, central among them being the face of Doheny's son and heir, from studies made when the boy was two years of age.

A local factory has about completed for Mr. and Mrs. Doheny a $15,000 organ, the pipes of which will be gold enameled, like the piano. An electrical attachment will make possible the playing of both organ and piano from either the first or second floor of the house. These attachments will be connected also with "organ chimes" on the open staircase and an "echo" above the stairs.

Sure Sign.

"Jimsey is getting old, I guess." "What makes you think so?" "He told me to-day that he felt just as young as he ever did."—Cleveland Leader.

PRISON AWAITS MRS. CHADWICK

UNLESS HIGHER COURT INTERFERES SHE MUST SERVE A TERM OF TEN YEARS.

Judge Tayler Passes Sentence Upon Her, and Trial at Cleveland Is Ended—Resigned to Her Fate—Attorneys Will Appeal.

Cleveland, O., March 28.—Unless the higher court interferes, Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick will spend the greater part of the next ten years in the Ohio state penitentiary. A sentence of ten years was imposed on her by Judge Robert W. Tayler, in the United States district court at five o'clock Monday evening. The sentence came at the close of a busy day for the court in hearing arguments on a motion for a new trial, which lasted all day. The motion was overruled. Mrs. Chadwick was convicted on seven counts and sentenced upon six counts. For four of these counts a sentence of two years each was imposed. Upon two counts a sentence of one year each was imposed, making a total sentence of ten years.

Attorneys Will Appeal.

Either Judge Francis J. Wing or Mr. Dawley will go to Cincinnati to make arrangements for a review of the case by the United States circuit court of appeals. The first step taken by the defense will be to ask for a stay of sentence until the appeal is tried out. There was an understanding with United States Marshal Chandler, United States Attorney Sullivan and the court to the effect that there would be no attempt to execute the sentence until the defense had an opportunity to carry the case to the higher court and there obtain a suspension of the sentence. Mrs. Chadwick will be defended to the last court.

How She Received Sentence.

Mrs. Chadwick was not particularly affected by the action of the court Monday, as seemingly she had resigned herself to any action that might be taken. When she was told that the motion for a new trial had been refused she merely nodded her head as if she already knew. The court asked her if she had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced. Mrs. Chadwick said there was nothing she cared to say herself. Her attorneys made no appeal to the court and the sentence was immediately imposed. By good behavior Mrs. Chadwick can reduce her time to imprisonment to eight years and four months.

Her Crime.

Mrs. Chadwick was indicted by the United States grand jury, at a special session ordered by Judge Francis J. Wing, who has, since his retirement from the federal bench, become her associate counsel, on seven separate charges, each relating to her connection with the failure of the Citizens' national bank of Oberlin, of which the late C. T. Beckwith was president and A. B. Spear cashier. Both the president and cashier were jointly indicted with the woman who borrowed thousands of dollars of the bank's money. She was convicted under the indictment in which she was charged with conspiracy—conspiracy with Beckwith and Spear to certify her checks when she had no money in the bank. This is a transaction prohibited by the government for the protection of the depositors and stockholders of a national bank.

Mrs. Chadwick's trial began March 6 and the jury returned a verdict of guilty on March 11. She was given a sentence of two years on each of four counts and one year each on two others.

The first disclosure of Mrs. Chadwick's remarkable financial career was made when suit was brought by Herbert D. Newton, of Brookline, Mass., last December to recover the sum of $190,800 said to have been loaned by Newton to Mrs. Chadwick. Shortly after the beginning of that suit Mrs. Chadwick went to New York and, after establishing herself at different times at several of the prominent hotels in New York, was finally arrested there on December 15 by federal officials. Within a few days she was brought to Cleveland, where she has since been a prisoner in the county jail.

STRICTURE AND KIDNEY DISEASE CURED.

"I had stricture for eleven years. It finally brought on Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. I had an uncomfortable shooting pain in the groin and feeling as though something was in the urethra. My back was weak and I could scarcely stoop over. Urine was full of sediments. Had a desire to urinate frequently. Family doctors, so-called specialists, patent medicines, electric belts, all failed. I was discouraged. I had spent hundreds of dollars in vain. Finally I consulted Drs. Kennedy & Kergan as the last resort. I had heard a great deal about them and concluded from the fact that they had been established over 25 years that they understood their business. I am delighted with the results. In one week I felt better and in a few weeks was entirely cured. Have gained sixteen pounds in weight." G. E. WRIGHT, Lansing.

Republicans Stand by Your Party Ticket

The men nominated at the republican primaries are certainly as representative and conservative a body of men as could be found in the republican ranks. From mayor down to constable there is not a man on the ballot that the republican party need be ashamed of or scratch on election day.

Every year we hear the gentle whispering from the democrats "do not mix politics in local elections." "Look for the man and cast party prejudices aside." It is true, some of our fellow republicans adhere to these soothing remarks and are misled by them. But how about the democrats, do they practice what they preach?

No! No! they "stand pat" like the Republicans do in national elections in the fall, and with their solid strength combined with the help of wavering republicans they gain democratic victories, which had it been otherwise, would be converted into republican victories instead of defeats.

Another thing we would like to impress upon the minds of our fellow republicans. Do not believe all stories you hear about candidates on your ticket. Altho the campaign has been comparatively free from this kind of politics owing to the excellent selections made by the republicans, nevertheless, consider them with a great deal of allowance, as these are political stories and circulated by the opposition in order to gain political ends, and as the stories go from mouth to mouth they become bigger and bigger with each transfer until the candidate, to the short sightedness of some of the voters, is temporarily transformed into a heinous object instead of a man.

For that reason do not place too much reliance in these fabrications. The duty of a good republican is to stand by his ticket when good, honorable and reliable men are placed upon it.

Therefore "stand pat" in municipal as well as in national elections and stand by the men that fight for the ticket in the fall.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Clerk—G. W. Kooyers.

All Good Men

The Republicans have reason to feel proud of the ward nominations made last Monday night. In every case representative business men of standing in the community were named and every Republican and every voter can conscientiously vote and work for the ticket. The caucuses in some instances were marked with lively excitement, good feeling and harmony, all of which insure success at the coming election. The following is the result of the caucuses in the wards:

First ward
Alderman—Derk J. TeRoller
Constable—Simon Roos
Members of City Committee—J. B. Mulder and M. Witvliet.

Second ward
Alderman—Gerrit VanZanten.
Constable—C. J. Dornbos.
Members of City Committee—A. J. Ward and J. Wolfert.

Third ward
Alderman—E. P. Stephan.
Constable—Arie Zanting.
Members of City Committee—Henry Kiekentveld and Benj. A. Mulder.

Fourth ward
Alderman—Derk Hensen.
Constable—Richard Vander Haar.
Member of City Committee—Joe Hadden and Arie VanderHill.

Fifth ward
Alderman—John Kerkhof.
Constable—Hans Dykhuis.
Members of City Committee—Albert Hidding and Henry Bosch.

After the caucuses the members of the Republican City Committee held a meeting at the Holland City News and chose Henry Kiekentveld as their chairman and Benj. A. Mulder, secretary.

Do not Expect too Much

The council at a special meeting held Wednesday evening for the object of considering the question pertaining to the removal of the Waverly yards, appointed the following committee to look into the matter and to confer with the railroad officials: Henry Geerlings, G. J. Diekema, G. VanSchelven, Geo. P. Hummer and C. M. McLean, were appointed.

This committee is certainly a good one, and if anything is to be accomplished, there is no doubt but that these are the men of all men who can accomplish it. But there is reason in all things and in this matter the committee is "up against it." As far as the railroad is concerned, the change is only an incident in the reorganization of the Great Central System of which the Pere Marquette plays but a small part.

It is a purely a business proposition with them and they do not take Holland into consideration whatever. The facts as considered by the railroad company is that there is no use in having two terminals within 25 miles of one another, one at Waverly and the other at Grand Rapids, but consider that the dividing line should be Benton Harbor which is half way between Grand Rapids and Chicago. These are the facts in a "nut shell" and this is the situation that is staring the committee in the face. Therefore do not expect too much of them, as there are impossibilities.

The Best Kind of Co-operation

There are many kinds of co-operation. When people working for the accomplishment of particular objects take a long pull, a strong pull and an all pull together pull there is generally something doing. Nothing can be accomplished when all pull in different directions. In business enterprises the surest road to success is to get all the interests concerned imbued with the idea that what helps one helps all and that what helps all helps one. Success will come then, but it will not come if some are of that small stripe of jealousy that opposes progress if they do not get the lion's share of the fruits of the onward strides.

There have been instances of the wrong kind of co-operation in Holland. There also have been instances of the right kind.

An instance of the right kind is found in the experience of the Holland Sugar Company and the farmers. As a result of the magnificent pulling together of all concerned the company has taken its place with the best of Holland's institutions. But the best of it all is that the company's prosperity has redounded to the good of the farmers. An acre of land yields more money now than it did before the sugar factory came. An acre of land is worth more. The farmer who owns it is richer than he was in the old days. It would not be thus if the farmers and the factory owners did not exemplify the magnificent spirit of co-operation that is and has been in evidence.

That this spirit will mark the history of the future is the wish of all concerned, for it will help all.

Class Day Exercises.

The participants in the class day exercises of the high school have been named as follows:

Salutatory—Bessie Van Ark.
Oration—George Roost.
Essay—Katherine Haraleigh.

These participants were appointed by a committee composed of Superintendent J. E. Clark, Principal H. S. Lee and three members of the class.

The appointment was based on scholarship, which does not mean that there are not other members of the class of equal scholarship but that those selected are among those having the highest record. Personal qualifications for the parts assigned had to be considered.

The winning candidate of both parties have agreed to have a public celebration Monday evening in the Alberti building East 8th street. This is as it should be.

Mr. Bird Tells of Havana, Cuba.

Havana, Cuba, March 17, 1905
To the Holland City News.

Being among one of the old subscribers of the Holland City News, and believe I still have in my possession my first copy in 1872. I now for the first time take the privilege of asking your pleasure of using a small space in your paper?

According to my promise to you, to my friends, and others that may wish to read of my interesting visit in Cuba and the Isle of Pines. A party of 25 left Chicago on January 22 arriving in Mobile, Ala., on the 23rd remaining there over night and after leisurely viewing the beauties of that quaint and romantic old Southern City one hundred and ten of us boarded the elegant steamship Saratoga for Havana, Cuba.

The first day and night was perfectly lovely on the water, every one seemed to be enjoying such a good time, but the next day and night was simply terrible, the terrific storm raging on the ocean at that time, struck us on Wednesday evening. Naturally it suddenly changed the disposition of our jolly crowd, particularly their appetite, nearly every one was sick. I was not sick so had the pleasure of sympathizing and comforting many of the young ladies that seemingly were very sick. We arrived in Havana on Jan. 26th.

Havana is a charming picture in the panoramic approach from the sea. The next sight to attract our attention was the light house, 144 feet high, its warning beacon can be seen twenty five miles at sea. Upon entering the harbor the waves were splashing nearly to the top of this light house and at least 4000 people were there to see us enter the harbor. Our next attraction was Morro Castle and forts "Old Punta". This picturesque old fort, commenced in 1589, is located on the west side of the harbor. Great age is in evidence by its quaint construction, discolored and moss-grown walls, ancient brass cannon and mediaeval water towers. The moat is now covered with well kept grass.

Directly across the harbor mouth is Calane Fortress. Next our eyes were drawn to the blackened wreck of the ill-fated "Maine." This adds a touch of gravity to the scene. An American never knows just how he feels about this catastrophe until he sees this somber remains himself. It hits him all of a sudden and few can gaze upon it with dry eyes.

Our steamer anchored nearby, here a Spanish doctor and an officer came aboard to examine us and take our baggage, declaration and entry papers, then we were taken off with a steam lighter to the custom house to have our baggage examined. We then found at our service either the American electric cars, a Spanish pony victoria or a handsome coach that can be had in Havana almost anywhere at all hours of the day or night. I am told there are 4000 of these coaches in the city, the prices are very reasonable, 20 cents Spanish silver for one or two persons and 5 cents extra for each additional person or 75 cents per hour. Between 11 p. m. and 6 a. m. double the amount is charged. Hotel accommodations are many, but very poor, a $3 or $4 day Hotel here, is not near as good as a $2 day hotel in the States. Beds are nearly all made of iron here, with an iron frame over the top and covered with a very fine mosquito netting, they have no mattresses on, just a quilt is spread over the springs; there are very few mosquitoes or house flies here, but plenty of fleas. In the country there is a small fly about as large as a pin head they call them hay-henies, they bite unmercifully hard.

After locating at the Pearl De Cuba Hotel we had to exchange some of our money into Spanish money; visitors must carry Spanish money, as it is cheaper and more convenient to pay all small expenses in Spanish silver. Custom house duties, hotel bills, railroad fares are paid in American money, nearly everything else is paid in Spanish money. $1 American is worth from $1.35 to $1.42 Spanish money. The daily news papers each morning publishes the rate of exchange which is based on the value of Spanish silver which is approximate in worth 65 cents on a dollar in United States Coinage. American visitors can see very little of Havana unless they have a guide and interpreter with them; it is a strange city, its people speaking a foreign tongue, many leave after their brief sojourn without seeing nearly as much of the quaint city, with its vast stores of interesting history, as would be possible with a little intelligent guidance.

Hundreds of tourists go to Cuba with leisure to spend weeks or months if desired in study of the whole island, Yes I dare say I have been Chaperon for three young ladies that were sent here to write up the island of Cuba. I may as well confess first as last that I, yes in fact, our whole party went to Cuba not only to look for investments, or to be impressed, but to be amused and to forget the strenuous life of the vigorous north, and to have a genuine good time; As our party consisted of 25 people we hired a guide and interpreter to take us out each day to see the sights of Havana and the interior.

Cuba is four hundred years old, and her architecture constantly reminds the stranger within her ports, that such is the fact. Since the American occupation, the streets of her chief cities and towns have undergone a transformation, well paved, well kept, and now Havana has the cleanest streets in the world; I dare say the cities in the states can now take pattern after them. The architecture of the better class of Cuban houses is much the same. The buildings are usually two stories in height, but many of the beautiful dwellings are but a single story in height, even in the large cities. Roof gardens are often a delightful feature of the houses of the wealthier families, and all are admirably arranged for the climate of Cuba. The ceilings are very high, and in many of the residences the partitions do not reach the ceiling by several feet, thus allowing a delightful circulation of air. The floors are of marble, stone or tiles, the latter often laid in beautiful mosaics. The windows are deep, but no glass in them, shutters inside and iron bars on the outside and in many cases they have outside balconies. The color scheme of a Cuban city is charming. In Havana it is perhaps less brilliant than in some of the smaller cities. Houses are of blue, pink, orange or maroon. Kor is a house invariably of one color, a blue house may have maroon trimmings, a green one may rejoice in blue doors and shutters, and yet the effect is delightful. Magnificent stores of every description are to be seen where one can purchase everything imaginable. Beautiful fan stores, where the finest fans in the world can be found; Jewelry stores with elegant displays of diamonds, watches and souvenirs; Silk stores with the costly and elegant silks from China and Japan. A visit is not complete without "doing them," though visitors usually pay twice what an article or souvenir is worth at these stores.

In Jamestown township the saloon fight is again on although it is not made an open issue between the Republicans and Democrats as in Zeeland. The election on next Monday will decide whether Jamestown will go "wet" or "dry" for the ensuing year.

On Monday afternoon Cornelius Tubergen was arrested for the larceny of a canoe belonging to C. De Roo. The case was settled out of court yesterday.

Revival Services at the M. E. Church

Rev. Luther of the Methodist church continues the meetings which grow in interest. On Tuesday night Evangelist Dr. Baker spoke from the parable of "The Talents." He urged the people to christian activity which would develop strength and character and also save sinners from the wicked one. He illustrated by the efforts made to save "Poor old George" the inebricate. Mr. Fairbanks and Holley gave a duet which was well received. A male quartet is also to assist this week. Evangelist Frank E. Morehouse of Jackson, who has done successful evangelistic work in the state for five years will occupy the pulpit on Sunday and will assist in the services until the close.

On next Sunday afternoon there will be preaching at Ventura M. E. church. Mr. H. Ray will have charge of the meetings. Mr. Boylan and Mr. Nichols will sing a duet. Let there be a large gathering at the service. The Sunday school is growing in interest and numbers and the workers believe there is to be a revival of religion in the locality of Ventura church.

WARSAW UNDER A REIGN OF TERROR

BOMB IS THROWN INTO A POLICE STATION AND SEVEN PER-SONS ARE INJURED.

While Baron von Nolken, Chief of Police is En Route to Scene, He Is Wounded by Bomb Thrown Into Carriage—Car Marked for Death.

Warsaw, March 27.—A bomb was thrown into the carriage of Baron von Nolken, chief of police of Warsaw, at eight o'clock Sunday evening. It is reported that the bomb was severely wounded. The attack on Baron von Nolken was the result of an elaborate conspiracy of the revolutionary party. Shortly before eight o'clock Saturday night an elegantly dressed man went to the police station at Praga, a large suburb of Warsaw, on the other side of the Vistula, and threw a bomb into a room of the station, wounding seven persons, two of them dangerously. The man started to run away, but was caught by the captain of the station. He was found to be a Jew, but his identity has not yet been discovered. He was wounded. A telephone message was immediately sent to Baron von Nolken at the city hall, informing him of the outrage.

Policeman Killed.
Baron von Nolken, accompanied by a police official, took a carriage and started immediately for Praga. When passing the castle where the governor general resides a man standing on the pavement threw a bomb at the carriage. Baron von Nolken, who was sitting on the side nearest the assailant, received the full charge of the bomb, while his companion escaped unhurt. The coachman was thrown from his box and the carriage was smashed. Baron von Nolken was removed to the city hall and doctors were summoned, who found he had received injuries on the head, neck, arm and leg which are believed to be serious.

Police Chief Injured.
Meanwhile the police official accompanying Baron von Nolken saw the bomb thrower fleeing, and pursued and caught up with him, but the criminal proved the stronger and tore himself away. Another policeman fired twice after him, without result. Later a man was found dead in Sowia street, who proved to be a plain-clothes policeman who was seen pursuing Baron von Nolken's assailant. The police believe that the latter turned on the policeman and shot him dead. A girl who was passing the spot when the bomb was thrown was wounded by splinters, and had to be taken to the hospital.

Baron von Nolken is very unpopular. He is hated by the masses of the Polish population, who hold him responsible for the sanguinary suppression of the disturbances here at the end of January. He has been here only a year, having come from St. Petersburg, where he was chief of the mounted division of the police.

Czar Marked for Death.
St. Petersburg, March 27.—It is openly stated among the workmen that the fighting wing of the social revolutionists has passed sentence of death on 30 high personages, the list being headed with the name of the Grand Duke Alexis and ending with that of the emperor and bearing also the name of the dowager empress. Eighty bombs were found by the Warsaw police hidden in a grave in the cemetery. The news of this fact has caused the greatest concern here.

THE LAST RITES.

Remains of the Late Mrs. Stanford Committed to the Final Resting Place.

Stanford University, Cal., March 25.—The body of the late Mrs. Jane Stanford, who recently died at Honolulu, now rests in the Stanford mausoleum between the bodies of her husband and son, near the institution of learning that bears their name. Before the final commitment of Mrs. Stanford's body to the stone sarcophagus simple services were held in the great Memorial church erected by her in loving memory of her husband. The church was filled with thousands of people from all over the state, who came to pay their tribute of respect.

Mexican Ambassador Dead.

Although a sick man since last fall the ambassador's death was due to a relapse caused by exposure on inauguration day.

Youth Laughs at Death Sentence.

Eight Killed in Landslide.
Semlin, Hungary, March 27.—A great landslide occurred here Sunday. A squadron of soldiers who went to the rescue of a buried woman suffered severely, eight of their number being killed and 19 injured.

Freeport, Ill., March 28.—William W. Smith, who built the platform for the Lincoln-Douglas debate, is dead. He served during the civil war as provost marshal under Gen. B. F. Butler.

Decide Yourself.

The Opportunity Is Here, Backed by

Holland Testimony.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement. Read Holland endorsement. Read the statements of Holland citizens. And decide for yourself. Here is one case of it:

John Kloosterman, two miles south east of Zeeland, says: "For ten or twelve years I looked in vain for some medicine to free me from distressing kidney complaints. I suffered at intervals during that with aching pains through the loins, twinges up and down the muscles of my back, irregular and unnatural condition of the kidney secretions and frequent attacks of dizziness. My son, John Kloosterman, a tailor, 133 East Eighth street, Holland, noticed Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in the Holland papers and highly recommended by people who had used them. Thinking they might help me he secured a supply at J. O. Doesburg's drug store and sent them out to me. I noticed shortly after I commenced the treatment that it was doing me good and as I continued, my condition improved. In my estimation Doan's Kidney Pills are by far the best remedy on the market."

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye. Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at W. C. Walsh's drug store.

FIRST PEACE STEP TAKEN BY RUSSIA

NO CESSION OF TERRITORY OR INDEMNITY AMONG LEAD-ING CONDITIONS.

REPLY FROM JAPAN ANXIOUSLY AWAITED

In the Meantime Preparations for War Will Go On—Hinted That the United States May Be Involved in the Move.

St. Petersburg, March 29.—It is announced that a step in the direction of peace actually has been taken. Russia has indirectly made known to Japan the negative conditions upon which peace may be concluded, namely no cession of territory and no indemnity, leaving Japan to determine whether negotiations can be begun upon that basis. No reply from Japan has yet reached the Russian government.

United States May Figure.

The above represents practically all the facts obtainable. Through what channel or channels Russia has indirectly communicated with Japan cannot be stated definitely, although there is reason to believe that it is through the United States. It is practically certain that France and possibly Great Britain, as the two allies of the belligerents, and the United States as the country acting for Japan, have been apprised of Russia's position. Tuesday night's rumors that President Roosevelt had tendered his good offices to both parties are incorrect. The president's friendly disposition and perfect willingness to undertake to open negotiations, however, are well understood here, and without asking directly that they be communicated to Japan, Russia could make known to President Roosevelt through Ambassador Cassini the conditions to which she could not agree while thus giving Japan an opportunity of knowing officially what the basis of the peace negotiations must be.

Russia Avoids Humility.

Russia avoids the attitude of suing for peace or actually submitting proposals, and besides places the United States and Great Britain and the powers generally in a position where they could offer Japan advice as to the reasonableness of the proposed basis. Having been apprised of Russia's position Japan has two alternatives, either to decline absolutely to open negotiations on such a basis or indicate her own attitude. If the negotiations are opened Russia probably will be prepared to make broad concessions on collateral issues.

Wants Peace; Prepares for War.

Russia's attitude was described Wednesday by a prominent diplomat as follows: "The government is now for peace, but continues to prepare for war." The whole situation with reference to the prosecution of the war is being carefully considered from every point of view by a commission sitting under the presidency of Grand Duke Nicholas Nikolaievitch, inspector general of cavalry, and consisting of Minister of War Sakharoff, Vice Admiral Avellan, head of the Russian admiralty department; Minister of Finance Kokovsov, Minister of Railroads Hilkoif; Foreign Minister Lamsdorff, Gens. Grodekoff and Kamoroff and several others. Every phase of the situation, military, naval, financial, transportation, Siberian and diplomatic, is being covered. The commission's report, which is expected to be completed in ten days, will be prepared by Grand Duke Nicholas Nikolaievitch and Gens. Grodekoff and Kamoroff for submission to the emperor.

Japan Asks $800,000,000.

Paris, March 29.—All the official information relative to peace is of a negative nature. At the same time the official view is now strongly optimistic that peace is not far distant. It is asserted in well-informed quarters that Japan has permitted Russia to learn that the peace conditions will be severely rigorous and will not be responsive to the recent sentimental plea to Japan's magnanimity. In particular it is said that Japan's indemnity figure is $800,000,000, and that this stupendous sum has proved so staggering to Russian diplomacy that it is the chief cause why the peace preliminaries do not advance to a decisive stage.

Japan Warned to Beware.

Washington, March 29.—It is stated here that Japan has received an urgent warning from a neutral power to beware of all offers of mediation from any government and to insist upon direct negotiations with St. Petersburg.

Will Have No Intermediary.

London, March 29.—"When peace negotiations commence it will be between Russia and Japan direct, and not through any intermediary," was Minister Hayashi's comment, when shown the dispatch from a northern European capital stating that M. Delcasse, the French foreign minister, had been asked to act as an intermediary to open peace negotiations. Minister Hayashi said he attached no importance to the statement, but believed that France was trying to influence Russia to open negotiations for peace. "So far as I know," he added, "no negotiations have been begun; but when Russia is ready to make terms Japan will be happy to consider them." Minister Hayashi repeated his previous statements that Japan is not noticing peace rumors, but steadily preparing to prosecute the war to the bitter end.

Prisoners Arrive in Tokio.

Tokio, March 29.—Twenty thousand prisoners captured in the battle of Mukden have already arrived in Japan. A revised unofficial estimate of the Japanese casualties in the battles of Mukden and Tien pass place the number at 57,000. Flags captured at Mukden have been presented to the emperor. Gen. Mayeda, who was wounded at Mukden, is dead.

Japs Advance.

St. Petersburg, March 29.—A telegram from Gungshu pass, dated March 28, says the Russians have evacuated the railroad station at Chaoumoadzi, 40 miles below Gungshu pass, and that the Japanese are advancing.

LITTLE HOPE FOR REFORMS

Success in Plan to Carry Out British Project Looked Upon as Impossible.

Vienna, March 29.—The statement made by the British foreign secretary, Lord Lansdowne, in the house of lords Tuesday on the subject of Macedonia, was read here with great interest Wednesday in official circles, where the opinion was reiterated that the Meurztage (Austro-Russian) reform programme has now come to an absolute standstill, and is inoperative. Lord Lansdowne's suggestion of the necessity for a project of further reforms, including the financing of Macedonia, was well received in official circles, but little hope is entertained of successfully carrying it out, primarily because the opinion prevails that if this is attempted Germany will withdraw from the existing union of the reform powers and use her influence, because of her various interests in Turkey, to counteract with the porte any further reform measures proposed by Great Britain.

Macedonian conditions have lately been attracting more attention here because of Great Britain's attitude, and also in view of the fact that with the spring comes a recurrence of the rumors, mostly emanating from Turkish sources, of active preparations on the part of Bulgarian bands for crossing into Turkey.

ACCEPT GIFT OF OIL KING.

Despite Protests Board of Foreign Missions Will Keep $100,000 Donation from Rockefeller.

Boston, March 29.—The American board of commissioners for foreign missions announced Wednesday that its prudential committee had accepted a report of the subcommittee, recommending the acceptance of the gift of $100,000 by John D. Rockefeller, but that final action on the matter had been postponed for two weeks. The report of the subcommittee, in the language of a statement issued by the board Wednesday, "was received and accepted as expressing the unanimous judgment of the prudential committee and the executive officers, and was to the effect that the committee could not accede to the protest of those who objected to the acceptance of the gift."

The report also stated that the gift was offered by Mr. Rockefeller, and unanimously accepted by the prudential committee on February 14 last. It says that in accepting the gift the committee followed the universal custom of the church in the past "in receiving upon its altars the gifts of all who were moved to lay them thereon."

Explosions in Gotham Subway.

New York, March 29.—There were two explosions in the subway tunnel at One Hundred and Sixty-eighth street and Broadway Wednesday, where the tunnel is 120 feet below the surface of the streets. Fire apparatus and extra police were summoned. They took place at a point beyond that to which the trains are run at present and near the American league baseball park. An up-town train, after being emptied of passengers, jumped the track and got beyond control of the motorman, crashing into a pile of construction material, which caught fire.

Taft Asks Resignations.

Washington, March 29.—Under direction from the president Secretary Taft Wednesday sent a note to Admiral Walker, chairman of the Panama canal commission, requesting the members of this commission to tender their resignations. The resignations have been sent to the president.

Colonel Greene Dead.

Hartford, Conn., March 29.—Col. Jacob L. Greene, president of the Connecticut Mutual Life insurance company, died Wednesday of apoplexy at his residence here. He was born in 1837. During the civil war he served with the Seventh Michigan regiment.

Held for Fatal Wreck.

Des Moines, Ia., March 29.—L. Hotchkies, engineer on the Rocky Mountain limited, which Eric Kutzlevin says he wrecked near Homestead, Ia., a week ago, died of injuries received. Kutzlevin will probably be held for murder pending an investigation of his sanity.

Wealthy Farmer a Suicide.

Rising Sun, Ind., March 29.—August Finke, a wealthy German farmer, committed suicide Wednesday with a revolver. He attempted suicide once before when summoned as a juror in the Gillespie murder trial. He was excused from serving on the jury.

McCormick Leaves Russia.

St. Petersburg, March 29.—Ambassador and Mrs. McCormick departed for Paris Wednesday evening, a large assemblage, in which practically the entire diplomatic corps was represented, gathering at the railroad station to bid them farewell.

Gives Cash to Spiritualists.

Keokuk, Ia., March 29.—Five thousand dollars is bequeathed to the National Spiritualist association, of Washington, D. C., in the will of the late Samuel W. Tucker, a wealthy citizen of Keokuk. The will was filed Wednesday for probate.

For Thin Babies

Fat is of great account to a baby; that is why babies are fat. If your baby is scrawny, Scott's Emulsion is what he wants. The healthy baby stores as fat what it does not need immediately for bone and muscle. Fat babies are happy; they do not cry; they are rich; their fat is laid up for time of need. They are happy because they are comfortable. The fat surrounds their little nerves and cushions them. When they are scrawny those nerves are hurt at every ungentle touch. They delight in Scott's Emulsion. It is as sweet as wholesome to them.

Send for free sample.

PLEDGE MADE GOOD BY GOV. PEABODY

COLORADO LEGISLATURE SEATS HIM AS GOVERNOR ON PROMISE TO RESIGN.

Keeps His Word and Lieut. Gov. McDonald Is Inaugurated—State Enjoys Unique Fame of Having Three Governors in 24 Hours.

Denver, Col., March 18.—The bargain made by leaders of the opposing republican factions of Colorado to take the governor's chair from Gov. Adams and to seat in it Lieut. Gov. Jesse F. McDonald after permitting James H. Peabody to hold it for one day, was carried to a conclusion late Friday afternoon. In fulfillment of the agreement which he made before the general assembly decided the gubernatorial contest in his favor, Gov. James H. Peabody resigned the office in which he was inaugurated late Thursday afternoon. His resignation, of which W. S. Boynton, of Colorado Springs, had been custodian since Wednesday, when it was written, was filed in the office of the secretary of state at 4:20 p. m.

McDonald Sworn In.

James Cowie, secretary of state, immediately certified Gov. Peabody's resignation, and Lieut. Gov. McDonald was then sworn in as governor by Chief Justice Babert. There was no further ceremony. Gov. Adams was ousted and Gov. Peabody installed by the general assembly about five o'clock Thursday afternoon and Gov. McDonald was sworn in before five p. m. Friday. Thus, in a space of less than 24 hours, Colorado has had three governors.

Lieut. Gov. McDonald reluctantly takes the chair which Gov. Peabody resigned after forcing Gov. Adams out. The lieutenant governor has taken no part in the bitter fight over the governorship which has been waged ever since the election on November 8.

Senator Arthur Cornforth, president pro tempore of the senate, becomes acting lieutenant governor by the elevation of Lieut. Gov. McDonald to the office of chief executive.

TWO ARRESTS IN BEEF TRUST PROBE

PROMINENT ARMOUR OFFICIAL CHARGED WITH INFLUENCING WITNESS.

Chicago, March 29.—Thomas J. Connors, general superintendent for Armour & Co., and the right-hand man of J. Ogden Armour in the management of his packing industries throughout the United States, was indicted by the special federal grand jury Tuesday on a charge of interfering with witnesses who had been summoned to testify in the beef trust inquiry. He appeared before Chief Clerk C. A. Buell, of the United States district court, who released the prisoner on $5,000 bonds.

Only First of Series.

It is believed the indictment of Connors is only the first of a series of indictments against high officials. Mr. Connors was indicted for alleged tampering with witnesses, and it is said the special grand jury has similar evidence against others.

PRESIDENT NAMES JUDGES.

C. C. Kohlsaat Promoted to Circuit Bench—Charges Against Jurist Declared Unfounded.

Washington, March 20.—President Roosevelt Saturday vindicated Judge Christian C. Kohlsaat by appointing him United States circuit judge of the Northern district of Illinois, known as the Seventh district. The president thus disposes of the charges of maladministration recently filed against Judge Kohlsaat.

Solomon H. Berthea, now United States district attorney for the Northern district of Illinois, was appointed to be United States district judge to fill the place vacated by the promotion of Judge Kohlsaat.

Kenesaw M. Landis also received a federal appointment at the hands of the president. He was named for the newly-created position of additional judge of the same district.

BEEF TRUST INQUIRY BEGINS

Judge Humphrey Urges Utmost Secrecy in Investigation in Chicago.

Chicago, March 21.—The "beef trust" investigation was officially launched Monday when 15 of the 23 grand jurors, who will make the inquiry, qualified for service before Judge J. Otis Humphrey in the United States district court. Every detail of procedure in the selection of grand juries was followed strictly to the letter, and in each more care was taken to forestall attacks which might be made on indictments against the packers, should any be returned. Each jurymen was asked if he had been approached by any person from any quarter in relation to the service, and all responded they had not.

Senate Adjourns Sine Die.

Washington, March 20.—The senate Saturday in executive session formally reached the decision that the Santo Domingo treaty could not be ratified. Pending nominations were disposed of and Senators Cullom and McCreary were named as a committee to notify the president that the senate was ready to adjourn. They were informed that he had no further communications to make to the body and at 3:39 p. m. the senate was adjourned sine die.

Tragedy in Texas.

St. Petersburg, Tex., March 22.—Thomas Haynes shot and mortally wounded Charles Morgan, instantly killed Roy Bess, then returned home, told his young wife what he had done, after which he locked himself in a closet and shot himself in the head with a 45-caliber pistol. The cause of the tragedy is unknown.

Exonerated.

Denver, Col., March 22.—The Colorado general assembly, in joint convention on Tuesday, exonerated James M. Herbert, vice president and general manager of the Colorado & Southern railroad, and Daniel M. Sullivan, postmaster of Cripple Creek, who had been charged with bribery in the gubernatorial contest.

An Honor to the President.

Madison, Wis., March 18.—The assembly on Friday honored President Theodore Roosevelt by passing a bill for the creation in Taylor county of a town which shall bear his name.

POLICE ALSO TAKE LATTER INTO CUSTODY

Indictment of Packing Man Promises to Bring to the Fore Some Startling Returns—Assistance Ordered from Washington.

Chicago, March 29.—Thomas J. Connors, general superintendent for Armour & Co., and the right-hand man of J. Ogden Armour in the management of his packing industries throughout the United States, was indicted by the special federal grand jury Tuesday on a charge of interfering with witnesses who had been summoned to testify in the beef trust inquiry. He appeared before Chief Clerk C. A. Buell, of the United States district court, who released the prisoner on $5,000 bonds.

SHIELDS ARRESTED.

John E. Shields, the witness whose testimony resulted in the indictment of Connors, has been arrested. Shields formerly was an employee of Armour & Co. in New York. John S. Hiller, general counsel for the associated packers, says Shields is still an employee of the firm, and favors extended to him by Mr. Connors were no more than would have been extended to any other visiting representative of the house. Shields was before the grand jury Monday, and was recalled Tuesday.

His admissions on his last appearance led to the indictment against Mr. Connors. It was reported that another high official of Armour & Co. narrowly escaped indictment for conspiracy to influence witnesses. He escaped, it is said, because of insufficiency of evidence directly implicating him. The penalty for the offense charged against Mr. Connors is a fine of $500 or imprisonment for three months, or both, on each count.

Secretary Hay Improves.

Gibraltar, March 29.—The White Star line steamer Cretic, from New York March 18 for Naples, with Secretary of State Hay and Mrs. Hay on board arrived here Wednesday morning. In an interview Mr. Hay said he felt much better than when he left New York. He thoroughly enjoyed his trip.

Russo-Danish Treaty Signed.

Copenhagen, Denmark, March 29.—The Danish parliament Wednesday adopted the Russo-Danish arbitration treaty.

FOUR DIE IN POWDER MILL

FATAL EXPLOSION IN PLANT NEAR TROY, N. Y.

Three Are Instantly Killed While Injuries to Another End Life Soon After.

Troy, N. Y., March 29.—Three men were killed outright and another so badly injured that he died a few hours later, by an explosion at the Schaghticoke powder mills, near this city, Tuesday. The men killed were: James White and Charles Colburn, of Hazardville, Conn.; James Sprague and Albert Bartlett, the latter being new employees. The men were at work in the corning mill when the explosion occurred, and the cause is not known. The bodies of three of the victims were blown to fragments. The fourth victim, White, was found 300 feet away, alive, but he could not recover. It is a remarkable fact that no fire among the buildings succeeded the explosion. The explosion caused a great amount of damage to windows in Valley Falls and Schaghticoke, and the shock was plainly felt in this city. The buildings destroyed were practically new, having replaced those blown up May 10 of last year, at which time two employees were killed.

Three wooden buildings, comprising part of the plant, and a car, the latter loaded with powder, being transferred to the corning mill, were destroyed. The main buildings of the plant were not harmed.

DROPS DEAD.

Vice President Wickes, of the Pullman Palace Car Company, Victim of Heart Disease.

Chicago, March 29.—Thomas H. Wickes, vice president of the Pullman company, dropped dead Tuesday on his way to his office in the Pullman building from his residence, No. 4941 Drexel boulevard. Heart disease was the cause of his death. Thomas H. Wickes had been identified with the Pullman company through all the stages of development of the great corporation. During the lifetime of George M. Pullman he was the great car builder's confidential man. To him was intrusted the active management and control of the great force of workmen, and it was his brain that carried out the plan of building the city of Pullman. It was during the Dobs strike of 1894 that Mr. Wickes' personality and aggressiveness came prominently into view. After the death of Mr. Pullman he continued the policy of the master.

Body of Barrymore Interred.

Philadelphia, March 29.—The body of Maurice Barrymore was interred Wednesday in the Drew plot at Glenwood cemetery. The funeral party came from New York in a special train and consisted of the dead actor's children, Ethel, John and Lionel, and a few intimate friends.

Tax on All Corporations.

Sacramento, Cal., March 29.—Gov. Pardee has approved the bill passed by the last legislature fixing a flat tax of $10 a year on all corporations, foreign and domestic, doing business in this state. The tax is expected to yield the state $500,000 in revenue during the next two years.

Many Killed in Skirmish.

Berlin, March 29.—An official dispatch from Windhoek, German Southwest Africa, Wednesday, announced that 11 men of Kerchner's detachment were killed and 22 were wounded in a fight with insurgent natives March 10 and March 11 at Kosis and Gelbanes.

Distinguished Citizen Dead.

Louisville, Ky., March 29.—Col. Frederick D. Funiak, capitalist and distinguished citizen, died at his residence here Wednesday. Col. De Funiak was born in Rome, Italy, 65 years ago, and was a veteran of Garibaldi's army.

Additional Local.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Simon Verwey, West Eighth street Monday—a daughter.

Frank Smith of the Holland Gas Co. was called home by the death of his father.

Dutch rusk are already being baked. The ovens are completed in the Slag & Zuidewind building and the company is ready for business.

G. Tien has purchased the meat market of S. De Nuyt operated in the rear of his building and will run it in connection with his grocery business.

E. C. Cady left Wednesday for Bethel Springs, Tenn., and will in the future live with his son Asher who is in charge of large dog kennels there. Cady formerly was in charge of the Macatawa kennels in this city.

Coroner Mastenbroek was called to Olive Monday to issue a burial permit in the case of a child two weeks old which had died without medical attendance. The doctor decided that death was due to spasms. Mr. and Mrs. C. Vander Heuvel were the parents of the child.

It is very likely that efforts will shortly be made to secure a pardon for Henry Wierda, the Zeeland young man who is serving a term in Ionia, for his part in bringing the revolver into jail, which was used by Wilson in his murderous assault upon Sheriff Dykhuus. Wierda is not over bright and he was used as a dupe by stronger minds.

The firm of Jacob Vandenberg of Zeeland executed a trust mortgage in the sum of $21,000 to William Wickers of Zeeland and John Snitzler of the Herpolsheimer Co. The liabilities are $15,000. The trustees will permit the firm to continue the business and it is hoped that the firms affairs may be soon straightened out.

So heavy was the fog Wednesday morning that the Argo did not attempt to enter the harbor until day break. Since the light house is gone the boats have nothing to be guided by. In the emergency Capt. Van Regenmorter hangs out a large lantern, furnished by the government, every night. These lanterns are larger than the ordinary kind and will throw its rays several miles, but in foggy weather they are of little use.

The United States inspectors are making things hum around the steamers which they are inspecting this year. The life preservers which have before answered the purpose and passed under the strictest requirements of the law are being thrown out this year. There is a different arrangement provided for the fastenings on the cork jackets by which this year's inspection absolutely throws out of commission many perfectly sound ones previously in use on some of the steamers. Inspectors all over the lakes are very thorough in their inspections.—Grand Haven Tribune.

Senator Suel Sheldon, as a member of the senate liquor committee, is much interested in the excise bill, which it is said the Anti-Saloon league of the state will present to the legislature. This is a bill to allow the governor to appoint a commission of three members on a salary, with power to travel about the state looking for violations of the liquor law and to make complaints without regard to local authorities. "I don't believe in such a measure," said the senator. "I think that we have liquor laws enough now and we have local officers to enforce them. I see no need of creating any new offices and I shall certainly not be in sympathy with any such movement."

Capt. Sherman S. Dickinson has received a letter from Adjutant General McGurrian touching upon military affairs in Grand Haven. General McGurrian very plainly states that Co. G. of this city, will undoubtedly be mustered out of the National Guard unless steps are soon taken to provide an armory for the company. The General states that he would very much dislike to see this action taken as Grand Haven has for years been very important in State military circles. But the report of Inspector Vernou makes it necessary for the local militia to do something at once. It is needless to say that the company members have been aware of existing conditions ever since Major Vernou's visit. Plans are now being prepared for a suitable armory and barracks and while the specifications do not call for as elaborate a building as at first proposed, it will undoubtedly be a serviceable structure and will save Co. G. to Grand Haven. And every citizen and former militia man should be with the boys in their efforts.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stratton, West Eighth street, Tuesday—a daughter.

Superintendent of the U. S. L. S. S. Morton of Grand Haven was in Holland the first part of the week with his family.

John W. Post of Lansing, whose summer home is Catalpa Lodge, North Side, has purchased 15 acres of land from VanAlsborg Bros. for vineyard purposes.

F. K. Colby and Capt. Harrington are expected in Chicago April 6 with the Pinta and if the weather permits will be in Holland harbor a day later.

County Treasurer Wm. D. Van Loo has purchased the Newell property, formerly the Episcopal rectory, on Clinton street and is moving into it.—Grand Haven Tribune Coopersville certainly takes high rank when the health of its inhabitants is concerned. There were no deaths in the period from Sept. 12, 1904 to Feb. 27, 1905.

Peter Van Liere has purchased the meat market of H. Knoll & Son, Twelfth street and First avenue, who have conducted the business for the past ten years.

Hope College museum has lately received several collections of rare specimens and its collection is now considered one of the best in the state.—Grand Haven Tribune.

Paul Meyers, who has been employed as night clerk at Hotel Holland, will leave tomorrow for Battle Creek to take the position of traveling salesman for the Johnson Machine & Foundry company.

Cyrus Brower of Forest Grove, who was arrested for non support on complaint of his wife Saturday, gave a bond in the sum of $200 to support his wife for three months and the complaint was withdrawn.

Henry Karsten, the Zeeland pitcher, has signed to play with the Davenport Three I. League the coming season. Neal Ball, the Holland favorite, plays in the same league with Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Judge Padgham says that the changes for the better in Grand Haven since he first came here as circuit judge over ten years ago are many. The judge coming from away is able to appreciate these changes.

John Jackman, a father of Humphrey Jackman who was murdered by Bert Tibbits, is serving a sentence of thirty days in the Kent county jail for drunkenness. The old gentleman is a confirmed drunkard.

The fishing steamers Bos and Callister collided on the river during the heavy fog Tuesday morning. The Callister was almost turned over by the impact and several planks were torn from her port side. The Bos was not injured.

Dr. G. J. Kollen left Monday for Nashville, Tenn., where he will represent the Reformed church at the Evangelical Alliance, which will be attended by representatives from British Columbia, South America and various parts of the United States.

Rolla Tuttle, charged with a burglary in Olive in September, 1903, appeared before Justice Hutton this morning and gave recognizance in sum of $300 to appear before that court for hearing on March 30 at 10 a. m. William Foster and John Parkinson furnished bail.

Discharged

Simon Vos, John Scheerhorn and Andy Clark, charged with the burglary of the DeRegt home, were discharged by Justice McBride Saturday afternoon, upon the order of Prosecuting Attorney Pagelsen.

The testimony given by Mrs. De Regt is practically as follows:

"My house was entered on the 22nd of February. I saw three boys in the house, one of them stood near my bed. On the night of the 22nd I locked my house before supper, as was my custom. The next morning I found that some one had broken through the cellar window. Mr. Vande Bee came to the house the next morning. I knew that my money had been taken. The next morning I found bureau drawers pulled out. They were closed tight the night before. I own the house in which I lived when robbed."

Cross examination by Attorney L. Y. Devries: "I am 72 years old and have lived here 15 years. I am a widow, my husband dying 13 months ago. I don't know how much money I had. I kept it down cellar under the floor on the west side. The last time I saw the money, two months before the robbery, I showed it to Mr. Vande Bee. The money was in a brass covered box. Vande Bee counted the money. He did not tell me how much there was there. No one ever broke in my house before. The night of the 22nd of February I went to bed at 8:20 or 9 o'clock. I heard the boys breaking in the house at 11:45 I got up and looked at the clock and then went back to bed. They came up the cellar and two of them came into my bed room. I did not recognize them. I did not say anything. I was afraid they would kill me. I heard the clock strike 2 shortly after they left the house."

The VandeBee and Zuidewind case will come off April 6.
